CASA MYRNA APPOINTS MARY STACK TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Casa Myrna, Boston's leading non-profit delivering solutions to end domestic and dating violence, has appointed Mary Stack to its Board of Directors.

Ms. Stack is Vice President of Finance at Cubist Pharmaceuticals, a public biopharmaceutical company focused on acute care pharmaceuticals addressing unmet needs. Currently responsible for oversight of the Accounting, Strategic Sourcing and Commercial Financial Services areas of the company, she has also led the expansion of the company's financial operations to keep pace with Cubist's growth over the past decade. Ms. Stack previously served as the Vice President of Finance at Groundwater Technology as well as holding a number of progressive finance management positions in the medical lab testing and high tech industries. She received her MBA from Babson College and her BS from the Boston University School of Management. She lives in Dedham.

Casa Myrna is Boston's leading non-profit delivering solutions to end domestic and dating violence. Founded in 1977, the agency operates three residential programs in the city of Boston for women and children made homeless by domestic violence, the state's most comprehensive range of fully bilingual supportive services, and the only statewide domestic violence hotline in Massachusetts (SafeLink, 877-785-2020). Casa Myrna's range of programs includes legal advocacy services, individual counseling and support groups, children's services, housing search assistance and advocacy, financial literacy education, teen dating violence education, public awareness campaigns and education to key stakeholders on the issue of domestic violence.
