CASA MYRNA APPOINTS LENNOX CHASE TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Casa Myrna, Boston's leading non-profit delivering solutions to end domestic and dating violence, has appointed Lennox Chase of Norwood, MA to its Board of Directors.

An attorney in private practice, Mr. Chase brings significant expertise in the area of real estate related legal issues, including construction, financing, transfers of titles and deeds, zoning and permitting. He also serves on the Board of Directors at Needham Bank where he manages and supervises bank policies and assets. As a Connector for Boston World Partnerships, he provides information to businesses seeking to establish a presence in the Boston area and connects fellow businesspeople with the resources they need to launch, locate or grow here. Mr. Chase manages the Angel Fund, which assists elderly residents of Norwood with heating oil payments and provides financial aid to local students. He is the founder of MyBarPrep.com, an online bar exam preparation service. A native of Dorchester, Mr. Chase was a Metco student and attended Bedford High School. He earned his B.A. from UMass Boston and his J.D. from the Northeastern University School of Law.

Casa Myrna is Boston's leading nonprofit delivering solutions to end domestic and dating violence. Founded in 1977, the agency operates three residential programs in the City of Boston for women and children made homeless by domestic violence, the state's most comprehensive range of fully bilingual supportive services, and the only statewide domestic violence hotline in Massachusetts (SafeLink, 877-785-2020). Casa Myrna's range of programs includes legal advocacy services, individual counseling and support groups, children's services, housing search assistance and advocacy, financial literacy education, teen dating violence education, public awareness campaigns and education to key stakeholders on the issue of domestic violence.
